

Dear Member,

An insight on Indian Economy: what is Next?
by
Mr. Raj Nair, Chairman, Avalon Consulting and Past President, IMC Chamber of Commerce and Industry

IMC Chamber of Commerce and Industry cordially invites you to participate in a very interesting insight on “Indian Economy: what is Next?” which will be presented by Mr. Raj Nair, Chairman, Avalon Consulting and Past President, IMC Chamber of Commerce and Industry at IMC as per following details :

Date : Monday, November 25, 2019
Time : 5.30 p.m.
Venue : Babubhai Chinai Committee Room (2nd Floor)
IMC, Churchgate, Mumbai 400020.

Whether you are an exporter or a domestic player, an investor in the capital market or real estate or commodities, a banker or a strategic planner, Government official or CXO in the corporate sector, employer or employed, you can gain competitive advantage by knowing about future events and outcomes before other do. Students of management will gain insights on what to expect.

About Mr. Raj Nair

Mr. Raj Nair, Chairman, Avalon Consulting and Past President of IMC, who correctly called the Global Crisis of 2008 in 2007, the crash in oil price in 2008 when it was expected to shoot to $200 per barrel, stagnation in the Euro zone, digital disruption of certain industries, etc. is back again to tell us about what to expect in India in the next 12 months.

Mr. Raj is a graduate of IIT Bombay and IIM Ahmedabad. An acclaimed strategy consultant and a recipient of many awards, including Distinguished Alumnus Award and Distinguished Service Award from IIT Bombay. He writes a widely circulated annual forecast for the year, each January covering global geo-politics, oil, currency flows, technology, implications on performance of various sectors in India, etc.

There is no participation fee.

Please send your confirmation of participation to Ms. Priyanka Sawant at priyanka@imcnet.org.

Regards,

Ajit Mangrulkar
Director General