

Dear Members,

IMC's Young Leaders' Forum is organising a panel discussion 'Investor Forum' for young budding entrepreneurs between the age group of 20 to 40 who may be at various stages in their business, find it difficult to finance their business due to various financial constraints. The details of the event are as under:

Day and Date : Thursday, 22nd November 2018

Time : 5:30 p.m.

Venue : Babubhai Chinai Committee Room

Grab an opportunity to learn about attracting Investment into your business. This interactive panel discussion will cover points on

- What investors are looking for?
- Varied options for getting business investments
- Investment modes through the stages of the business life cycle

It is always seen that financing is always a big concern for young entrepreneurs especially when they have no business background and have to start a fresh. The initial period for any venture is followed by a long period/brief of stagnation. According to the Randstad Workmonitor survey of 2017, 83% of the Indian workforce would like to be an entrepreneur which is higher than the global average of 53% percent. Keeping this in mind, this year YLF has decided to organise an 'Investor Forum Panel Discussion'.

The speakers for this dynamic and interactive panel discussion are as under:

Panelists:

Mr. Shailesh Haribhakti, Chairman, Haribhakti & Co. LLP

Mr. Ravneet Gill, CEO, Deutsch Bank

Mr. Piyush Khaitan, Managing Director, NeoGrowth Credit Pvt. Ltd

Moderator:

Mr Atul Joshi, CEO, Oyster Capital Management & Advisory

to be confirmed*

There is no participation fee but the seats are limited. We appreciate if you could fill the registration link: <https://goo.gl/forms/ZD02m64xubbBRTa32> to confirm your RSVP so that we can reserve seats well in advance

Regards

Ajit Mangrulkar

Director General, IMC