The regulatory and tax framework governing charitable and religious trusts in India has undergone significant changes in recent years, with increased compliance requirements, closer regulatory scrutiny, and far-reaching amendments under both central and state laws. Trustees, professionals, and advisors are required to stay updated on these developments to ensure continued eligibility for tax exemptions and regulatory compliance.

This webinar aims to provide participants with a practical and updated perspective on key recent developments impacting charitable trusts, including registration, taxation, and regulatory oversight.

Key Areas of Discussion

The session will, inter alia, cover:

- Renewal of registration of charitable and religious trusts, including practical challenges and common issues faced during scrutiny
- Important changes introduced under the Income-tax Act, 2025, with specific relevance to charitable institutions
- Recent amendments and developments under the Maharashtra Public Trusts Act, and their practical implications
- Updates and compliance requirements under the Foreign Contribution Regulation Act (FCRA)
- Emerging trends, litigation issues, and compliance best practices for trusts going forward

The discussion will be complemented with insights from experienced practitioners, focusing on practical implications rather than purely theoretical aspects.

The panellists for the webinar are CA Anil Sathe, Partner, Gokhale & Sathe and Mr. Noshir Dadrawala, CEO of Centre for Advancement of Philanthropy India and the session will be moderated by CA Gautam Nayak, Partner, CNK & Associates LLP and Co-Chairman, IMC Direct Taxation Committee.

This webinar will be particularly beneficial for:
