“CHALLENGES TO ARBITRAL AWARDS” by Mr. Janak Dwarkadas (Senior Counsel)

“ENFORCEMENT OF ARBITRAL AWARDS” by The Hon’ble Mr. Justice Anoop V. Mohta (Retd.)

“EXECUTION OF ARBITRAL AWARDS” by Mr. Gaurang Mehta (Advocate)

The speakers will share their knowledge, expertise, experiences and views, which will be followed with interactive discussions with the participants in the respective sessions. The speakers shall also endeavour to deal with and cover various case law and practical aspects on the above subjects, with emphasis on domestic arbitral awards.

OBJECTIVE

The Seminar will be of immense value, given that the 2015 Amendments substantially affect the arbitration process and, usually its desired culmination in an enforceable Award. Key issues will be addressed by the eminent speakers, having experience and expertise in the field of arbitration and execution.

The Government of India and the Judiciary are taking several steps for speedy dispensation of justice through the Courts of Law in view of the arrears of pending cases and influx of new cases. Various steps are also being taken to support and promote Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) methods, including arbitration, which are useful and effective for resolving commercial disputes expeditiously and more so through arbitral institutions like the IIAC (IMC International ADR Centre) rather than ad-hoc arbitrations. Arbitration being one of the preferred ADR methods for resolving disputes, there is a need for practitioners and those involved with arbitrations to keep abreast with the recent amendments and developments, not only on the legal aspects, but also in practical application.

Recognizing this need, IMC, through its ADR (Arbitration) Committee, has, for the past several years, taken upon itself the task of creating awareness of arbitration, and also arranging Courses, Seminars, Conferences and Workshops attended and conducted by persons of eminence in the field.
